In order to fulfil its obligations as a Service Provider, Waterford Intellectual Disability Association (W.I.D.A.) is required to create and process records which hold both personal and sensitive data. These records are kept in confidence and processed in strict accordance with the privacy and data protection rights of the individual. W.I.D.A. shares records only for the purpose of compliance with service delivery, health, and regulatory requirements. Data will be disclosed where required or authorised by law and in line with the General Data Protection Regulations. Please see the following for more details on the type of information we hold in relation to you.
